

2014 Croix de Labrie

The 2014 Croix de Labrie has a clean and pure raspberry and wild strawberry scented bouquet that oddly reminded me of a Pinot Noir! The palate is medium-bodied with svelte tannin, crisp acidity, silky to the touch with a lovely black cherry and cassis finish that retains freshness and tension. This is a delicious, well-crafted and quite sophisticated Saint Emilion to relish for a decade, possibly more.

- Neal Martin (February, 2017)

Copyright 2016, The Wine Advocate, Inc. - Reprinted with permission